Easter

Easter was a time of celebration and everyone made sure to go to church and confession for Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Eggs were eaten on Easter Sunday and that was the end of fasting and lent for another year. People used to say that the sun danced on Easter Sunday morning at dawn.

written by Ellen Power, interviewed Charlie Morrison