Bonfire Night was the eve of St. John's day on the 23rd of June. Fires were lit outside on fields and it was a tradition to say the rosary around the bonfire. There was a belief that if a bit of the ashes was scattered in each field crops were sown in, they would be a good crop that year from that field.

15th August

15th of August was a holy day, the Assumption of our Lady. People in our Parish visited the holy well in Kilgeever graveyard. My granny remembers sitting in a queue inside the wall of the graveyard waiting her turn to do a stations around the well. This meant saying Sertan prayers around the well.
