New Year

New years day was were people made new years resolutions and people believed whatever you did or felt on this day would set the tone for the rest of the year. People wished their neighbours a happy new year and got the reply "and many happy returns".