Old food

Long ago people would mostly eat porridge for breakfast and patato and cabbage for dinner.

They would grow all there own vegetables. They would keep a pig for bacon.

In summer people who lived along a river would live on fish.

by Joseph Hitterick 3rd class
The snow storm 1947

In 1947 there was a great snow fall in Ireland it began snowing in February and the snow remained on the ground till April. It was many feet deep and travel was impossible.

many animals died especially the sheep on the mountains.

Joseph Ritterich 3rd class
The fair day

In Louisburgh long ago before A mart it would be called A fair day.

Where men would bring some Cattle to the town.

To sell for some money.

Joseph Kitterich 3rd class
The fair day