Old Funny Stories

My Great Grandfather was at a wake and they were saying a prayer and he tied someone's lace to the dresser and he put the cigarette but down his neck and he jumped up and took the dresser with him.

My Great Grandfather Tommy Gill fought against the black and tans in the 1916 Easter Rising. My Grand Uncle still has his medals. He had to hand in the gun after the treaty was signed.

by Patrick O'Malley

Told by Martin O'Malley