Families are dying of hunger.

A time of great, great poverty, misery and evictions.

More than 1 million Irish people died and 2 million emigrated.

Ireland is not the same anymore.

Neither are our families or crops.

Emigration, we don't look forward to but we have to take that risk.