

my dad

Kevin Kitterick

The land lord,

Land lords were people from England who lived in large house And who had taken all the land from the Irish farmers. They then rented back the land to the Irish for very unfair amounts of money.

If they couldn't pay They were thrown out of their houses

by Joseph Kitterick 3rd class

Old tradition in Boy,

First the turf was cut by

A slaine.

Then it was spread out then it was made into clamps.

Then it was brought home by donkey and sleeves.

In the old days the work was much harder in the boy not like now adays were machines to the work.

Joseph Kitterick 3rd class

Weather Lore

Rain before seven is fine by eleven.

If you see A Swallow fly low it A sign of rain.

Joseph Kitterick 3rd class